

Call for Nominations for Members of the Governing Board of SAA

Nominations for Executive Council-elect May 2018- (Mandate 2018-2021) and Members of the Governing Board of SAA (Mandate 2018-December2021)

DEADLINE: 21st March 2018

In accordance with the SAA statutes, the Governing Board consists of fifteen members elect from the 5th zones of Africa The Governing Board, in accordance with the article 10.1of the Statutes, consists of the following members elected through an electronic ballot process:

- Thirteen members elected by the membership at large
- Two members nominated by the UN agencies.

Three members will be elected from each of the three regions: Three members will be elected, consisting the representative from each of the 3 regions: Eastern Africa, Western Africa and Southern Africa and Two members will be elected to represent the Central and Northern regions (SAA statute article 10.1) consisting the representative of the Central and Northern Regions (SAA statute article 10.1). The election will be conducted in the five constituencies during the same period.

Global representation and participation

As a true representative of a Pan-African organization, and a custodian of the International Conference on AIDS and STIs in Africa (ICASA), The Society for AIDS in Africa, needs energetic, committed and capable people from a variety of cultural and linguistic contexts to serve on its Governing Board. Business is conducted generally in English and French so competence in English or in French, is necessary to enable participation.

Being a member of the Governing Board can be time-consuming and challenging as the Board strives to promote HIV/AIDS research and advocacy, to respond to the pandemic in Africa. It is also rewarding, because of the stimulating opportunity to work with colleagues from different regions and cultures.

GOVERNING BOARD

The SAA Governing Board is responsible for the strategic and professional direction of the SAA, within guidelines approved by the General Assembly (SAA Statutes Articles 10.2). It establishes priorities, has oversight of SAA's activities and approves budgets and the annual accounts. It is focused on strategic issues and provides guidance to the President, Secretary General, and other officers.

The elected members of the Governing Board serve for a term of four years and may stand for a further consecutive of four years only.

Six members of the Governing Board are elected by the Board, to be the SAA Executive: the President, Vice President, Secretary General, deputy Secretary General, Treasurer and Deputy Treasurer of SAA. The President may ask a member of the Governing Board, to represent SAA at key conferences or other meetings, to ensure that the SAA's voice is heard. Funding assistance from SAA, is available under such circumstances.

Members of the Governing Board are expected to make themselves available, usually at no cost to the Society, to fulfill Board responsibilities which include the requirement to meet on one occasion each year. At the ICASA Conference there are two meetings: one on the day before the ICASA starts and one on the day after the Conference ends. SAA covers the hotel costs for these meetings. Some additional limited travel assistance may be available under special circumstances. Business may be conducted in between meetings by email and teleconference.

A Candidate for one of the thirteen elected places on the Governing Board has to be SAA's paid member for the three consecutive years (2015-2016-2017). Each candidate must have valid nomination by SAA members.

The current President elect, who has completed his tenure of office in December 2017 will not seek for another mandate. Governing Board members currently in their 2nd term are not eligible for nomination. The successful candidates for these positions places on the Governing Board, will serve for four years, from commencing on May 2018 until December 2021. Those elected for the first time will then be eligible for re- election for a final, second term of four years (2022-2025).

THE PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The President-elect and the executive Council serve in this role, for four years.

The President leads the Society and its board. The President represents SAA and the International Conference on AIDS and STIs in Africa (ICASA) at government and allied industries, international and national organizations and bodies. The President chairs the Governing Board and presides over General Assembly meetings which are held at the biannual ICASA Conference. The Presidency involves a significant amount of travelling (some 50 days a year) for meetings, making keynote speeches and generally representing SAA and the International Conference on AIDS and STIs in Africa (ICASA). As only limited SAA funding is available to assist in some of these travels, the President must have strong ability to mobilize funds and other support. The President works closely with the Secretary General and the Treasurer. He is a full member of the governing board.

The four year term of office as Executive members elect, provides an opportunity to identify priorities to be pursued on assuming the presidency. The Executive members work closely with the SAA Permanent Secretariat and deputize for the President as required, for example, to represent the SAA or chair meetings. The Executive members serve in that role for four years. The term of office, as Executive Members, provide an opportunity to identify priorities to be pursued on assuming the presidency. The Executive Members works closely with the President, Secretary General and Treasurer. The Six Executive Members are elected by the Governing board.

Consequently, the position of Executive Members also involves a significant amount of travelling, speaking commitments and representation and therefore, demands strong ability to mobilize funds and other support. The Executive Members are full members of the Governing Board.

All the present Governing Board members are eligible for nomination, except the current President-elect, Dr Ihab Ahmed, the deputy Secretary General, Dr Enock Omonge and Mrs Lois Chingandu as governing board member
